

Making a Split-Fiber Tail

Overview

This How to Make a Mixed Hackle Fiber Tail video includes detailed fly-tying instructions. Learn to tie many great flies in the Orvis fly-tying video library Today we make a split-tail from scratch for your open climbing systems, this method is perfect if you want to get into tree climbing on a budget or you want to test out something simple without having to break the bank. more Audio tracks for some languages were automatically generated. You wrap the thread around the hook bend. Separate the fibers into equal numbers on each side of the thread. This will not be displayed to the public. Note: Even if your submission is a video, we need an image to represent your fly on our. Split tails can be buried all the way till the end. Check knot to make sure it doesn't slip or roll on biner.

Making a Split-Fiber Tail

How to Make Mixed Hackle Fiber Tail from Tightline Productions~T. Flagler on Vimeo.

While I was attending an Oregon Fly Tyers Expo (coming up next month) a gentleman showed us how to tie split tails that was so easy I never forgot the technique. Some of you may be ...

Greg posted in the other thread how easy it is to splice your own tails. I have the Toss video and enjoy splicing my rope, but I thought the method for split tails was different.

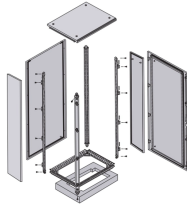

I agree with Pescado and Rottal. I just clump whatever fibers I'm using now. It doesn't seem to make much of a difference and sure speeds things up. If you really want a neat trick (got this ...

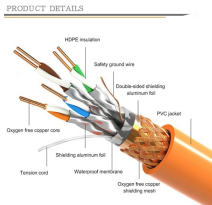

Now that we've covered the basics of the split tail, let's dive into some essential arborist gear tips to help you maximize efficiency and safety in your wood processing and firewood ...

This How to Make a Mixed Hackle Fiber Tail video includes detailed fly-tying instructions. Learn to tie many great flies in the Orvis fly-tying video library

More movement, more durable, use fibre tails to fool educated fish or to induce a bite when the fish are not playing ball.

Here, Tim demonstrates an easy method, credited to Charlie Craven, for making a mixed-hackle tail by simply attaching two bunches in sequence. The fibers basically mix themselves, which ...

The cool thing about the split tail is that you can unclip the line from the biner and do your initial clip in or a redirect. If you are right handed, clip the tail in first and then the line. That way the ...

Today we make a split-tail from scratch for your open climbing systems, this method is perfect if you want to get into tree climbing on a budget or you want to test out something simple...

Contact Us

For more information, pricing, or custom energy solutions, please contact us:

Website: <https://www.gdroofing.co.za>

Email: sales@gdroofing.co.za

Phone: +27 72 418 9365

Address: 22 Electron Avenue, Isando, Johannesburg, 1600, South Africa

This document is for informational purposes only. Specifications subject to change without notice.

